July 2021

Join Our Weekly
Speaker Series!

Attend via Zoom

Wed, July 7, 2021:

"Tech-splainer" Nick Englund will help us with a few popular topics like how to stream (movies and videos and listen to podcasts) and the pros and cons of using cloud storage. Always entertaining and informative, Nick will also field tech questions of general interest.

Wed, July 14, 2021:

From household pets to wildlife in our community, the Animal Welfare League of Arlington is your first call for animal care and questions. Sam Wolbert, President and CEO, will describe the mission and work of the AWLA and the special challenges of continuing foster and care operations throughout the last year.

Wed, July 21, 2021:

Arlington's Signature Theatre is an award-winning professional theater company for over 30 years in our community. Matthew Gardiner, Associate Artistic Director, will share highlights from performances and discuss significant educational and outreach programs that power performing arts in Arlington.

Wed, July 28, 2021:

Dr. Evelyn Lewis, co-founder and president of Veterans Health and Wellness Foundation, will describe the origin, work, and challenges addressed by this unique organization, formerly Warriors Centric Healthcare Foundation. Since 2013, VHWF has served veterans and their families and educated health care professionals on the needs of those in military service.
