Every Wednesday
from 10-11 am
October 2021

Join Our Weekly Speaker Series!

Attend via Zoom

Wed, October 6, 2021: *Historic House Museum Consortium

Learn from Gretchen Bulova (President) about the Consortium's diverse collection of over 40 sites open to the public in the DC area. They include homes of presidents, civil rights leaders, suffragettes, diplomats, patriots, founding fathers and mothers and also the site of an infamous assassination.

Wed, October 13, 2021: *American Sports - Playing for fun, profit and glory

Craig Esherick, professor of Sport Management, George Mason University, will cover sports topics such as the Summer and Winter Olympics and trends in amateur and professional sports. Professor Esherick has extensive experience in coaching, business and sports diplomacy and will field our questions.

Wed, October 20, 2021: *Getting the Best Value for Your Dollar

Representatives from Washington Consumers' CHECKBOOK, our local non-profit consumer guide, will share tools and tips for how to make good choices on everything from health care to home repair.

Wed, October 27, 2021: *Universal Design for Your Forever Home

Your home holds possibilities for safe, efficient, and up to date living. We will learn what Universal Design is and how our homes can be enjoyed for years to come from Craig Duroske, Founder and Certified Aging-in-Place Specialist of Sun Design, design-build firm in Northern Virginia.
